- All types of RC aircraft are welcome on Sunday July 10th, 2011 from 9:00 AM until dark
- MPF Field is located at The La Vista Sports Complex two blocks south of 66th and Harrison
- All RC pilots with a valid 2011 AMA membership card are welcome, no landing fee required!
- Hot dogs and bratwurst fresh from the grill will be readily available from 10AM until 4PM
- Ice cold pop and bottled water available all day for pilots and spectators
- Sun shades are recommended, sunscreen and insect repellant are essential!

Your friends at the Midwest Performance Flyers are celebrating another great summer of radio control flying fun with a Summer Fun Fly! All kinds of RC aircraft are welcome. There's never a landing fee at the Performance Flyers field, and any pilot with a current AMA membership card is welcome to join the fun.

Flying will begin around 9AM and will continue until dark. There will be fresh grilled hot dogs and brats available from 10AM until 4PM. There will be ice cold sodas and bottled water available all day. Plan to stay out and enjoy a terrific day of flying and fun!

Contact Fred Tuckerman at (402) 709-8711, or email him at ftuckerman@cox.net, with any questions. Visit <http://www.performanceflyers.com> for a map to the field.
