

Fellow Omahawk's:

Yes, the annual Memorial Day Egg Burn is a GO for this Monday, starting at 8:30am and going until the food is gone or your tummy is full!

We can huddle in the pavilion if it rains and I'll bring another canopy to set up for cooking.

Just bring your family, some eggs, bacon and/or sausage and we will do the rest!

Rumor has it that Dennis Bender may even cook some pancakes.

The field will be squishy with all this rain, but bring an airplane to fly off the grass if so inclined. (The runway is all torn up and is not functional.)

See you Monday!
